

A Homeless Stranger

1. A home - less Stran - ger a - mongst us came, To this land of
2. And then from this sad and sor - row - ful land, This land of
3. And I must a - bide where He a - bode, And fol - low His sin and mourn - ing; He walked in a path of sor - row and shame, tears He de - part - ed; But the light of His eyes and the touch of His hand, steps for - ev - er; His peo - ple, my peo - ple; His God, my God,

Thru in - sult, and hate, and scorn - ing: A Man of sor - rows, of Had left me bro - ken - heart - ed: And I clave to Him, as He
In the land be - yond the riv - er: And where He died would I toils, of tears, An out - cast man, and lone - ly, But He looked on turned His face From the land that was mine no long - er, The land I'd al - so die; Far dear - er a grave be - side Him, Than a king - ly

A Homeless Stranger

me, and thru end - less years, ——— Him must I serve, Him on - ly.
loved in the old - en days, Ere I knew the love that was strong - er.
crown a - mong liv - ing men, The place that they de - nied Him.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "A Homeless Stranger". It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The score ends with a double bar line.