

No Book Is Like The Bible

1. No book is like the Bi - ble, For child - hood, youth and age;
2. It tells of man's cre - a - tion, His sad, pri - me - val fall,
3. Oh, let us love the Bi - ble, And praise it more and more;

Our du - ty, plain and sim - ple, We find on ev - 'ry page.
It tells of man's re - demp - tion, Thru Christ, who died for all.
Our life is like a shad - ow, Our days will soon be o'er.

It came by in - spi - ra - tion, A light to guide our way,
In sa - cred words of wis - dom, It bids us watch and pray,
But if we close - ly fol - low The coun - sel God has giv'n,

A voice from Him who gave it, Re - prov - ing when we stray.
And ear - ly come to Je - sus, The Life, the Truth, the Way.
We then may hope with an - gels To sing His praise in heav'n.
