

Loyalty To Christ

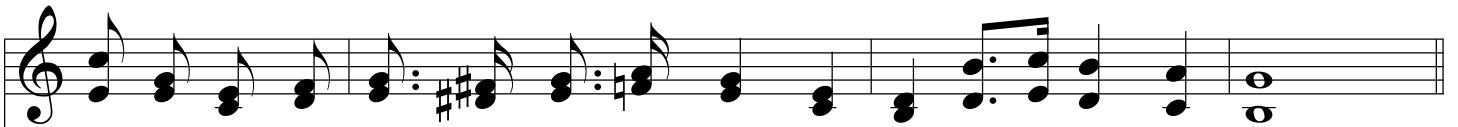

C

1. Our hearts have felt the rap - ture of the pres - ence of our God, We're
 2. We've heard the call of Je - sus as it ech - oes thru the soul, Loud - er
 3. We've hosts of sin to con - quer in the name of Christ our King, We've
 4. In "Loy - al - ty to Je - sus" we will ev - er do His will, The press - ing on to vic - t'ry in the paths too long un - trod, The cross of Christ our than the call of trum - pet or the sol - emn drum - beat's roll, The God who calls to souls to win for Je - sus till with joy the heav'ns shall ring, And Gos - pel words to God that leads our forc - es will di - rect and bless us still; His ev - er - last - ing sym - bol and sal - va - tion thru His blood, Our hosts are march - ing on.

 du - ty, of heart - ser - vice asks the whole, As He is march - ing on.
 car - ry till the dis - tant isles shall sing - That God is march - ing on.
 prom - is - es He will in us ful - fil, As He is march - ing on.

Chorus

Loy - al - ty to Christ as - sures us Vic - to - ry so grand and glo - rious;

Loyalty To Christ

ff Rit...

All our foes shall fall be - fore us, Our God is march - ing on.
march - ing on.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a vocal line with lyrics. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains piano accompaniment. The piece begins with a fortissimo (ff) dynamic and concludes with a ritardando (Rit...) marking. The lyrics are: "All our foes shall fall be - fore us, Our God is march - ing on. march - ing on."