

THE TABERNACLE OF GOD IS WITH MEN

CANTICLE

FOURTH SERVICE

SIR JOSEPH BARNBY

1. The tabernacle of	God is with men;	He dwelleth not in	tem - ples	made with	hands.
3. Come to the river of	God in the midst:	[to him that is athirst He giveth of its]	liv - ing	wa - ters	freely.
5. Blessed be the Lord that	draw - eth nigh;	[and openeth deep things of the]	spirit to	them that	love Him;
7. Now unto the	God of grace,	for the might of His spirit	and the	love of	Christ,

2. All day its	gates are open;	and no night	shuts the	way of	mercy.
4. Come to the	tree of life,	whose leaves are for the	heal - ing	of the	nations.
6. And calleth the king - doms	of this world	to be the kingdoms of our	God and	of His	Christ.
8. Be glory in the Church though -	out all ages,	world with -	out	end. A	men.
