

Father, See Thy Suppliant Child

Direction

1. Fa - ther, see Thy sup - pliant chil - dren Trem - bling stand be - fore Thy throne,
3. As a shel - t'ring cloud at noon - tide, As a flam - ing fire by night,

To con - firm the vow of Ho - reh; "We will serve the Lord a - lone."
Thru pros - per - i - ty and sor - row, It will guide our steps a - right.

2. Thy com - mand shall be en - grav - en On the tab - lets of our heart,
4. Till we reach the land of prom - ise, When the toils of earth are past,

Till the heart in death be bro - ken, Till the cord of life shall part.
Till we sleep the sleep e - ter - nal In the realms of peace at last.
