

From Sinai's Height A Fountain Gushes

D

Allegro moderato

1. From Si - nai's height a foun - tain gush - es, That pours its flood in
2. On Si - nai's crest a tree is grow - ing, A loft - y tree, with
3. O'er Si - nai's sum - mit flames a bea - con; Ce - les - tial splen - dor 4. The wa - ters of this crys - tal foun - tain, The tree whose fruit such cir - cles wide; Its crys - tal stream e'er on - ward rush - es, wide - spread arms, No words, how - ev - er strong and glow - ing, from it streams; Its bril - liance time nor clouds can weak - en;

bliss doth yield, The bea - con - light up - on the moun - tain,

And fraught with bless - ings is its tide; Who from this stream re -
Can fit - ly paint its glo - rious charms; To all who gar - ner
Un - dimmed still shine the an - cient beams; The eye il - lu - mined
Are Si - nai's law, to us re - vealed; They who its pre - cepts stores his heart, Feels thru his veins fresh vig - or start.

its in - crease This tree yields hap - pi - ness and peace.
by its light Will ev - er find the path of right.
know and guard From man have praise, from God re - ward.