

Lord, Thou Hast Searched

G

Poco lento

1. Lord, Thou hast searched and known me from a - far;
 2. Thou com - pass - est my path - way and my bed
 3. O whith - er from Thy spir - it shall I flee,
 4. If I the wings of morn - ing take, and past
 5. If I in dark - ness shroud me from Thy sight,
 6. Search me, O Lord, and see if un - to sin

Thou all my tho'ts canst see; Yea, my down - sit - ting
 Where - e'er I move or dwell; E - ven be - fore my Or from Thy pres - ence go? Lo, Thou art there, if The ut - most seas a - bide, There al - so, Lord, Thy Then night it - self grows clear; For dark - ness hid - eth
 My heart is prone to stray; Try me and know my and up - ris - ing are Ac - count - ed known to Thee.

 lips the word have said, Thou canst that word fore - tell.
 heav'n my dwell - ing be Or She - ol's depths be - low.
 hand shall hold me fast, Thy right hand be my guide.
 not from Thee, but night Doth bright as day ap - pear.
 tho'ts, and lead me in The ev - er - last - ing way.