

New Blessings Every Morning

F

Allegro Moderato

1. New bless - ings ev - 'ry morn - ing, New bless - ings still at eve,
2. But, of Thy gifts, the sweet - est, The dear - est is that we,
3. Then to this ho - ly mis - sion We pledge our - selves a - new;

Our lives with good - ness crown - ing, We as Thy gift re - ceive.
Our self - ish needs for - get - ting, May work and give like Thee.
We give our minds to seek - ing, Our hearts to love, the true,

As are the stars in num - ber, As are the sea - shore sands,
The world and all its sor - rows Our hearts, like Thine, can feel;
And, grate - ful for Thy good - ness, We join with Thee to bring

Slower

So man - y are the boun - ties, Still flow - ing from Thy hands.
And we as Thy co - work - ers, Can teach and lift and heal.
The day when as in heav - en Thou on the earth art King.
