God Of The Living, In Whose Eyes
ADORO L. M., Six Lines.

Words: J. Ellerton
Music: J. Barnby

1. God of the living, in whose eyes Unveiled Thy whole creation, all their life, All souls are Thine: we must not say still their life; Thine are their thoughts, their works, their powers, a - tion lies,

2. Released from earthly toil and strife, With Thee is hidden despair sleep profound, Not wandering in unknown despair Lord, in trust; And bless Thee for the love which gave
   sleep profound,

3. Not spilt like water on the ground, Not wrapped in dreamless Lord, in trust; And bless Thee for the love which gave
   sleep profound,

4. Thy word is true, Thy will is just; To Thee we leave them, Thy Son to fill a human grave, That none might fear that flesh set free, We know them living unto Thee.
   Thy voice, Thine arm, Thine care; Not left to lie like Thy voice, Thine arm, Thine care; Not left to lie like Thy voice, Thine arm, Thine care; Not left to lie like flesh set free, We know them living unto Thee.
   e'er they be, Our dead are living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.
   world to see, Where all are living unto Thee.
   even tree: Not dead, but living unto Thee.

Slower