God Will Give His Children Peace

Words: James M. Gray
Music: D. B. Towner

1. Like sweet music softly breaking On the troubled dreamer's sleep, Comes the promise down from heaven.

2. Far above the din and striving Of life's wide and restless sea, Thru the singing and the sobbing.

3. All my doubts and questions still ing, All the fears that press the soul, Tell ing of a love unchanging.

4. When the day has reached its twilight, And my bark its haven nears, Still the promise lives unbroken.

Chorus

God will all His children keep. "Perfect peace, Comes this message sweet to me. Per fect peace, Does this echo ever roll. In the glad external years."

per fect peace, per fect peace, God will give His children peace."
