There Is a Sea

Words and Music: Lula Klingman Zahn
There Is a Sea

unsparing hand: A stream more wide, with deeper tide.
lead; Its dreadful name, Flows on, flows on to lower land.
down; That by His grace, That sea is waste and dead.

That by His grace, with deeper tide. Flows on, flows on to lower land.
its dreadful name, that sea is waste and dead.
hand, A stream more wide, with deeper tide.
lead lead; its dreadful name, that sea is waste and dead.
down, down; That by His grace, with deeper tide.
hand, A stream more wide, with deeper tide.
lead; Its dreadful name, Flows on, flows on to lower land.
down; That by His grace, That sea is waste and dead.
