The Lord Doth In His Kingdom Come

STRAUSS L. M.

1. The Lord doth in His kingdom come; Exalt and magnify His name:
   Throw open heart and gate to Him, And bring Him in with loud acclaim.
   And open now your heart to Him, And bring Him in with loud acclaim.

2. He comes to His inheritance, Then praise and bless His royal name,
   Will form us in His image fair, Abounding in all good and love.
   Cast out His every enemy, Thy heart for His abode prepare.

3. He brings the treasures of His grace, He will our guilt and fear remove,
   The Lord doth in His kingdom come; Exalt and magnify His name:
   And open now your heart to Him, And bring Him in with loud acclaim.

4. Admit Him in thy soul and heart, That He may reign unri - valed there;
   Throw open heart and gate to Him, And bring Him in with loud acclaim.
   Will form us in His image fair, Abounding in all good and love.
   Cast out His every enemy, Thy heart for His abode prepare.

Words: Victor von Strauss
Music: Caryl Florio

PDHymns.com