The Rock Of Refuge

"Thou art my rock and my fortress." – Psalm 31:3

1. Surely, surely, there is safety in the shelter of our Lord,
   He is ready to protect us, When His mercy in implored;
   Let us look to Him in trouble When upon life's stormy sea,
   He will be a place of refuge, Where our souls at rest may be.

2. He will lead us on to heaven If we follow in His way,
   And will be the Star to guide us To the bright, celestial day;
   Let us steer life's vessel ever To the harbor of His grace,
   So that He at last may bring us To behold Him face to face.

3. He's a Refuge never failing And a Rock on which to stand;
   And to us He's ever reaching With a tender, loving hand;
   He will keep us safe for ever Sheltered by His boundless love,
   Till we enter thru the portals To the home prepared above.

Words: Martha S. Lippincott
Music: H. P. Danks

PDHymns.com