In the Kingdom of the Lord

1. In the kingdom of the Lord, Dwell the good, dwell the blest, In the kingdom of the Lord, there is peace, there is rest.
Lord, Is my hope, is my joy. Lord, In my bright heav'n-ly home. To that place, To that land my soul shall fly, glad my soul shall fly, When this pilgrim-age, When this pilgrim-age is bright. As I'm trav-eling, as I'm trav-eling a-long, To that land To that land Thine are my de-sires, Sav-i-or's blest a-bode, Sav-i-or's blest a-bode, bright. As I'm trav-eling, am trav-eling a-long. To that land To that land

Words: Palmer Hartsough
Music: F. Clark Perry

PDHymns.com
In the Kingdom of the Lord

With my Savior blest, almost hear the song,
Almost hear the song.

With my Savior evermore.
I can almost hear the song.

Dear home land of my God.

Chorus

When the sun is sinking low, So oft I

When the sun is sinking low,

sun is sinking low,

So oft I

sing, then so oft I sing, so sweetly sing,

then so sweetly sing,

sweetly sing,

O that land, that blessed land, to which I go, land to which I go.

Where my Father is the King. He is the King.