The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature. It contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

Chorus

Nev - er, no, nev - er look back! Nev - er, no, nev - er look back!
Nev - er look back, Nev - er look back,

The chorus section begins with a melodic phrase in the upper staff featuring a half-note chord with a fermata, followed by eighth notes. The lower staff continues with a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes.

If a crown you would wear, There's a cross you must bear, So nev - er, nev - er look back!

The final system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melody from the previous system, ending with a half-note chord and a fermata. The lower staff provides the final accompaniment, ending with a half-note chord and a fermata.
