The Glad Refrain

1. Lonely o'er life's desert way, Pilgrims roam the vale of tears;
   Earthly hope and earthy gain, While the earthy gain,
   Yield a heritage of fears,

2. May I in these pleasures share, Lay my burdens down; Cast on Jesus every care,
   Wait the faithful servant's crown? Unto as I am,
   Make me for Thy service meet, Heav'nly gain,

3. Humbly, Lamb of God, I come, Bowing prostrate at Thy feet; Take, oh, take me as I am,
   Make me for Thy service meet,

Note - Sing bass solo mezzo (mf), accompanying parts piano (p); soprano solo forte (f), accompanying parts mezzo (mf).

Words: Rev. George P. Hott
Music: Charles H. Gabriel

PDHymns.com
The Glad Refrain

While the path more brightly shines, For the heav'nly arches catch the strain,
So, "Cheer, oh, cheer, ANgels sing it "

Unto you the promise is, Heav'nly arches catch the strain,
"Cheer, oh, cheer, ANgels sing it "

Pilgrim's feet, And eternal mansions
Hear Him say, E'er My promise shall
O'er and o'er; Earth, repeat the glad reality,
"Cheer, oh, cheer, ANgels sing it "

Fair fail, Wait his long- ing eyes to greet.
Heav'n and earth shall pass away," "Je-sus reigns for-ev-er-more."

Mansions fair, Wait his long- ing eyes to greet.
Heav'n and earth shall pass away," "Je-sus reigns for-ev-er-more."

PDHymns.com