The Less I Am, The More Thou Art

Words: Adolf Moraht
Music: Caryl Florio

1. The less I am, the more Thou art; O Jesus, humble me!
2. Thou, Savior, wilt be all or nought, Be all in all to me,
3. Down from each lofty height of pride, May I be cast by Thee;
4. Then shall I triumph, Lord, for Thou My strength and shield wilt be;
5. The less I am, the more Thou art; O Jesus, humble me!

Take Thou possession of my heart, Thy dwelling let it be!
Alas! how much in me is wrought, That cometh not from Thee.
That dead to self, and crucified I to the world may be.
And thru Thy might I shall, e’en now, From death and sin be free.
Take Thou possession of my heart, Thy dwelling let it be!
