The Light That Once In Judah

“He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself.” 1 John 5:10

Words and Music: H. Butterworth

1. The light that once in Judah shone, We may no more behold;

No bright She-kini-nah makes its throne 'Mid cher-u-bim of gold;
No more the pentecostal flame Returns to holy men,
But God reveals His grace the same To waiting souls as then.

2. My soul behold the endless light In Jesus' reign begin;
The flame that once without was bright, Now shines more bright within;
No longer to the eye of sense The outward vision glows,
But, in the inward evidence Doth Christ His love disclose.

3. Yes, tho', His rays no longer shine The golden ark above,
With-in the spir-its in-most shrine Still glows Im-man-uel's love;
There dwells His glo-ry as of yore- Then cease with doubt thy strife;
In help-less dark-ness walk no more- Be-hold the Light of Life!
