Times Of Refreshing

1. We read of the 'times of refreshing,' And seasons of bountiful grace; When penitents deep in contrition, May know of Him Who has purchased relief. O glorious 'times of refreshing,' We rest on the promise secure, God send us the

2. O soul in the vale of deep sorrows, O prodigal, chastened by grief; Come, bringing the sins that oppress thee, To all who the promise believe. We rest on the promise secure, God send us the

3. To those who will come there's a welcome, Like only a Father can give: And sweet restoration is promised To Words and Music: H. S. Thursby
'times of refreshing' That shall forever endure.