

Save The Fallen

1. Save the fall - en, save the fall - en, Canst thou care - less pass them by;
2. Raise the fall - en, raise the fall - en, Snatch them quick - ly from the grave,
3. Save the fall - en, save the fall - en, Clouds are gath - 'ring o'er the sky;
4. Lift the fall - en, lift the fall - en, In their hearts lie bur - ied deep;

Wilt thou leave thine err - ing neigh - bor, Leave him all a - lone to die?
Tell them Je - sus will for - give them, That He died their souls to save.
He will per - ish in the dark - ness, Leave, oh, leave him not to die!
Feel - ings that the touch of kind - ness, May a - wake from death - ly sleep.

Then, O Chris - tian speak the mes - sage, Speak it, speak it while you may;
Gen - tly breathe His name so pre - cious, Hum - bly call - ing ere too late;
Let Thy mer - cy beam dear Sav - ior, O'er the poor be - night - ed soul;
Of His love, O Chris - tians tell them, - Christ hast prom - ised un - to all -

Love thy neigh - bor as thy - self, Pass him not an - oth - er day.
It hath pow'r to sweep a - way, All the tempt - er's cru - el hate.
Draw the wand - 'rer close to Thee, Keep him ev - er in the fold.
And the par - don full and free, Of - fered un - to those who fall.

Save The Fallen

Chorus

Save, O Chris - tian, save the fall - en, Je - sus bids you bring them in;
Save, O Chris-tian, Je-sus bids you

From the hedg - es and the high-ways, Save their souls from death and sin.
From the hedg-es Save their souls
