Teach Me To Be True

Words by M. Victor Staley
Music by Charles H. Gabriel

1. Be with me, Lord, each passing hour, And make me pure and true; Teach me to ne’er refuse Thy call, What’er Thou bidd’st me do.

2. Thou seest, dear Lord, my path in life; ‘Tis Thine to guide the way, ‘Tis mine obedience, Lord, to yield, And follow day by day.

3. I would not ask to look beyond The present hour, O Lord, Enough for me to hold Thy hand And take Thee at Thy word.

4. Full well I know Thou canst not err, So I will never fear, But in the darkest gloom of night, Still feel Thy presence near.

Chorus

Wher’er Thou bidd’st me go, dear Lord, What’er Thou bidd’st me do, Make me obedient to Thy will, And teach me to be true.
