The Glad Refrain

Words: Rev. George P. Hott
Music: Charles H. Gabriel

Note - Sing bass solo mezzo (mf), accompanying parts piano (p), soprano solo forte (f), accompanying parts mezzo (mf).

PDHymns.com
The Glad Refrain

path you path the promise is. For the heavenly arch - es catch the strain, "Cheer, oh, cheer thee,"

While the path more brightly shines For the heavenly Un - to you the promise is. "Cheer, oh, cheer Heav'n - ly arch es catch the strain, An - gels sing pilgrim's feet, And eternal mansions hear Him say, E'er My promises shall o'er and o'er; Earth, repeat the glad re - ly pilgrim's feet, And eternal thee," hear Him say, E'er My promises - it o'er and o'er; Earth, repeat the fair fail, Wait his long - ing eyes to greet. fail, Heav'n and earth shall pass a - way."

frain, "Je - sus reigns for - ev - er - more."

mansions fair Wait his long - ing eyes to greet. es shall fail, Heav'n and earth shall pass a - way."
glad re - frain, "Je - sus reigns for - ev - er - more."