The Ten Virgins
When The Bridegroom Comes

Note– In the singing of the several verses let the tempo be governed by the sentiment to be expressed. Some of the words require a slower movement than others. The line, "Go ye out to meet Him," should be sung very fast. The Chorus must be closely connected to each verse. The whole song should be sung without interludes. It is impossible to represent in notes the peculiar effects produced by the colored people, from whose singing this music was arranged. The singers can very easily adapt the words to the music.
