The Veil Uplifted

Words by William Kitching, Alt.
Music by Charles H. Gabriel

1. When the veil shall be uplifted, Hiding from our mortal sight,
   All that scene of wondrous glory, Where the saints are robed in white.
   I shall see what now, shall see what now I see not, Hear what none on earth may hear;

2. When the Savior home shall call me, There to taste eternal joy,
   Washed in His all-cleansing fountain, Praise shall be my glad employ.
   I shall join the angelic chorus, Such as none on earth may know.
   Walk in everlasting;

3. I shall tune my harp with gladness, While in robe of glory dress,
   Round the throne with angels worship, Sinless and forever blest.
   None on earth may hear; Walk in ever-lasting,

4. There, 'midst angels gathered round Him, Strains of heav'nly music flow;
   I shall join the angelic chorus, Such as none on earth may know.
   Walk in ever-lasting;
