There's A Royal Banner

1. There's a royal banner given for display To the soldiers of the King; As an ensign fair we lift it up today, While as ransomed ones we sing.

2. O'er land and sea, wher'er man may dwell, Make the glorious tidings known; Of the crimson banner now the story tell, While the Lord shall claim His own. Marching on!

3. When the Great Commander, from the vaulted sky, Sounds the resurrection recitation day, Then before our King the faint and foe shall die
   And the saints shall march away. Marching on and on!

Chorus

While as ransomed ones we sing. Marching on! Marching on and on!

For Christ count every thing but loss, For the King of kings, toil and sing 'Neath the banner of the cross!
