They Who Seek The Throne Of Grace

ARIO

They who seek the throne of grace,
Find that throne in every place;
When our earthly comforts fail,
When foes of the life prevail,
Then, my soul, in every strait
To thy Father come, and wait;
If we live a life of pray'r,
God is present every where.
If we look to God in pray'r,
God is present every where.
'Tis the time for earnest pray'r;
God is present every where.
He will answer every pray'r;
God is present every where.
