Thy Presence, Lord, Hath Me Supplied

BOWEN L. M.

1. Thy presence, Lord, hath me supplied,
   Thou my right hand dost give;
   And then to glory me receive.

2. Whom then in heav’n, but Thee alone,
   Have I, whose favor I require?
   Compar’d with Thee, that I desire.

3. My trembling flesh and aching heart
   May often fail to succor me;
   And my eternal portion be.

Words: Metrical Psalm
Music: From Haydn
