1. When Adam was created, He dwelt in Eden's shade;
3. He had no consolation, But seemed as one alone,
5. This woman she was taken From near to Adam's heart,

7. The woman is commanded To do her husband's will,
9. This woman she was taken From under Adam's arm,

11. The husband is commanded To love his loving bride;
13. Avoiding all offenses, Not sow the seed of strife,

As Moses related, Before a bride was
Till, to his admiration, He found he'd lost a bone.
By which we are directed That they should never

In every thing that's lawful, Her duty to fulfill
And she must be protected From injury and

And these are the solemn duties Of every man and wife.
EDMONDS 7, 8.

2. Ten thousand times ten thousand, Of creatures swarmed around,
4. This woman was not taken From Adam’s head, we know;
6. The book that’s called the Bible, Be sure you don’t neglect;
8. Great was his exultation, To see her by his side;
10. This woman was not taken From Adam’s feet, we see;
12. The woman is commanded Her husband to obey,

Before a bride was formed, Or any mate was found.
And she must not rule o’er him, It’s evidently so.

Great was his elevation, To have a loving bride.
And she must not be abused, The meaning seems to be.

In every thing that’s lawful, Until her dying day.
