

City Of The Jasper Wall

E♭/B♭ - SOL

1. O cit - y of the jas - per wall, And of the pearl - y gate,
2. O cit - y where they need no light Of sun, or moon, or star,
3. O cit - y where the shin - ing gates Shut out all grief and sin,

For thee a - mid the storms of life, Our wea - ry spir - its wait,
Could we with eye of faith but see How bright thy man - sions are,
Well may we yearn a - mid earth's strife, Thy ho - ly peace to win,-

p O may we walk the streets of gold, No mor - tal feet have trod;
How soon our doubts would flee a - way, How strong our trust would grow,
Yet will we meek - ly bear the cross, Nor seek to lay it down,

f O may we wor - ship at the shrine, The tem - ple of our God.
Un - til our hearts should trust no more The treas - ure here be - low.
Un - til our Fa - ther calls us home, And gives the prom - ised crown.

p O may we wor - ship at the shrine, The tem - ple of our God.
Un - til our hearts should trust no more The treas - ure here be - low.
Un - til our Fa - ther calls us home, And gives the prom - ised crown.
