I'll Be Ready

Luke 22:40

A♭/E♭ - SOL

Earnestly

1. When Je - sus shall come a - gain by and by, I'll be read-y to go;
2. No mat - ter what day or what hour it shall be, I'll be read-y to go;
3. Should He come in the morn - ing, or the noon - day, I'll be read-y to go;
4. E'en should the Lord tar - ry till mid-night so late, I'll be read-y to go;
5. I long for His com - ing, I sigh for sweet rest, I'll be read-y to go;

He's prom - ised to gath - er His saints in the sky, I'll be read-y to go.
The signs of His com - ing I'm watch - ing to see, I'll be read-y to go.
Or late in the eve as the light fades a - way, I'll be read-y to go.
With lamp trimmed and burn - ing will pa - tient-ly wait, I'll be read-y to go.
He'll take me to heav - en, the home of the blest, I'll be read-y to go.

Chorus

I'll be read - y, I'll be read - y, I'll be read - y to go;

I'll be read - y, I'll be read - y, I'll be read - y to go.

Charles Edward Pollock

Charles Edward Pollock