

Isaiah's Vision

D \flat /F - MI

1. "Woe is me!" said the proph - et when he saw the Lord,
2. The pres - ence of Je - ho - vah to the proph - ets gaze Bro't
3. The vi - sion of the King en - tranced him with de - light, Who

High, and lift - ed up, sit - ing up - on a throne;
fly - ing ser - a - phim, hav - ing a coal of fire:
heard the voice of God, say - ing, "Whom shall I send?"

Gaz - ing on such glo - ry brought con - vic - tion to his soul;
"Lo, this hath touched thy lips, and thine in - iq - ui - ty is gone,
"Here am I!" the proph - et said, "send me, send me," I pray!

Rit... Coda

When he cried out, "I'm un - clean, un - done."
And thy sin is purged, thou'rt clean en - tire." "Go!" saith the Lord! whose
In Thy name I will Thy cause de - fend.

Note— Woe! Lo! Go! Emphasized in a sermon at Mt. Lake Park, Md., by Rev. C. H. Babcock, July, 1910.

Isaiah's Vision

train filled the tem - ple; Wing - ed ser - a - phim stand - ing a - bove,

Cry - ing re - spon - sive - ly in strains of love, "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, is the Lord of hosts, "Ho - ly, ho - ly,

Ho - ly, The whole earth is full of His glo - ry." Ho - ly is the Lord of hosts," Ho - ly, Ho - ly,"