

The Good Old Bible

1. We love the good old Bi - ble, We love it more and more, And ev - 'ry time we
2. We love the good old Bi - ble, Which lights us on our way, A lamp to guide us
3. We love the good old Bi - ble, For when our skies are drear, With - in its bless - ed read it, We find a treas - ure store; It stands the test of ag - es, So ev - er With bright and cheer - ing ray; It is the word which con - quers, With pag - es We find our hope and cheer; Like jew - els they are gleam - ing, Those won - der - ful, so true, It tells a Sav - ior sto - ry, So old, yet ev - er new.

pow - er from on high, The bread from heav - en giv - en, Soul hun - ger to sup - ply.
words of ten - der love Which tell a Fa - ther's good - ness, And point to joys a - bove.

Chorus

The Bi - ble, the Bi - ble, We love the dear old Bi - ble;

Our teach - er it shall ev - er be, The Bi - ble, the Bi - ble.