Over Yonder

Eb

1. O - ver yon - der there is rest, And the wea - ry and op - pressed Shall for
2. O - ver yon - der there is song, That shall ev - er sweep a - long Thru a 3. O - ver yon - der joy shall reign, For we'll meet our own a - gain, Freed from ev - er - more be blest, By and by. Lone - ly hearts no more are lone, hap - py, white - robed throng, By and by. And the new song we shall sing, wea - ri - ness and pain, By and by. O the glad - ness of that day,

And no sor - row shall be known, In that hap - py, hap - py home on high.
Is of our e - ter - nal King, Who has bro't us to that home on high.
With our tears all wiped a - way, In that bless - ed home be - yond the sky.

Chorus

O - ver yon - der all is bright, O - ver yon - der all is right, For there

Mrs. Frank A. Breck   PDHymns.com   Grant Colfax Tullar

Over Yonder

nev - er com - eth night, By and by. There are streets of shin - ing gold,

There are glo - ries none have told, In that hap - py land be - yond the sky.