

Pure Gold

Psalm 21:3

C

1. Why la - bor for treas - ures that rust and de - cay,
2. Each prom - ise con - tain'd in the Book He has giv'n,
3. The gift of the Spir - it, which all may re - ceive-

That spar - kle a Di - rect - ing the
The rap - ture of mo - ment, then van - ish a - way? Go ra - ther to Je - sus, with ear - nest de - soul in its path-way to heav'n, Is price-less, e - ter - nal, un - bound - ed, and par - don to all who be - lieve- An an - swer to pray'r when the heart is op - sire, And buy of Him "gold that is tried in the fire;" Sal - va - tion's a free, More pre - cious than dia - monds, or gems of the sea; God's word is a press'd- The hope of a crown, and a man - sion of rest- All these are bright treas - ure of val - ue un - told; Be wise to ob - tain it, for this is Pure Gold. treas - ure of val - ue un - told; O fail not to gain it, for this is Pure Gold. treas - ures of val - ue un - told; Make haste to se - cure them for they are Pure Gold.

Fanny J. Crosby
PDHymns.com
Robert Lowry