

The Song Of The Reapers

{ Hear the song the hap - py reap - ers sing, As in the har - vest field they { Tho' their hands a - wea - ry of - ten grow Of toil - ing in the sun, of { hap - py reap - ers sing, As in the har - vest field
 { - wea - ry of - ten grow Of toil - ing in the sun, each a sick - le wield; Late and ear - ly hear the ech - oes ring From la - bor just be - gun; Tho' their steps un - stead - y be, and slow, Yet hear the ech - oes ring

 - stead - y be, and slow,

1. broad and yel - low fields of ripe and gold - en grain; }
 still we hear the _____ } ech - oes of their sweet re - frain.
 2.

{ Faint - ing with the heat, Sort - ing the bri - ers from the wheat, Cast - ing out the { You shall have re - ward! Rest in the prom - ise of the Lord, Ev - 'ry sheaf a tares and this - tles, one by one; Pil - ing up the leaves, Bind - ing the star to glis - ten in your crown; Thrust the sick - le in, Gath'r the sheaves

The Song Of The Reapers

Cres...

bright and gold-en sheaves: Faith-ful reap-ers, you shall re-joice when day is done.
 from the fields of sin; Be thou pa-tient, the bur-den

2.

will be soon laid down. { O ye i-dle ones, there is so much to Will you go all emp-ty hand-ed to the do! Hark! the Mas-ter of the har-vest calls for you;

 King, With but leaves and bri-ers as your of-fer-ing?

1.

Take the rust-y sick-le down and has-ten to the field, For There is need of 2.

reap-ers; Look the fields are white; Why } Now the call o-bey! go bend-ing fields are white;

D. C. if desired

la-bor while you may, For lo! the day is dy-ing, and there com-eth night.