Won't You Come?

B♭

1. Do you think, when you turn from your Sav - ior, How lit - tle He
2. Do you think, when you turn from your Sav - ior, How He grieves o'er your
3. Do you think, when you turn from your Sav - ior, How He poured out His
4. Do you think, when you turn from your Sav - ior, Let me ask: have you asks you to do? Just to come and con - fess and o - bey Him hard - ness and sin, How long at your heart He's been knock - ing, life - blood for you? O sto - ry most won - drous and touch - ing, count - ed the cost? Tho' you gain all of earth's fleet - ing treas - ure,

Refrain

Af - ter all He has giv - en to you. Won't you come? Won't you And yet you will not let Him in?
And you know that the sto - ry is true! Won't you come?
If your soul in the end should be lost!

come? Won't you come and con - fess and o - bey? The Won't you come? And o - bey?

Won't You Come?

time is so short for His ser - vice, And no time is yours but to - day!