"Draw nigh to God and he will draw nigh to you...and purify your hearts, ye double-minded." Jas. 4:8

Lady Huntington, 1764 Key of A Major

B. P. White and E. J. King, 1844

1. When Thou, my right-eous Judge, shall come To take Thy ran - somed peo - ple home, Shall I a - mong them stand?

2. I love to meet Thy peo - ple now, Be - fore Thy feet with them to bow, Tho' vil - est of them all;

3. O Lord, it pre - vent by Thy grace, Be Thou my on - ly hid - ing - place, In this the ac - cept - ed day;

Shall such a worth - less worm as I, Who some - times am a - fraid to die, Be found at thy right hand?

But can I bear the pierc - ing thought, What if my name should be left out, When Thou for them shalt call?

Thy pard - 'ning voice O let me hear To still my un - be - liev - ing fear, Nor let me fall, I pray.
